Representative-elect Albert H. Nash has been made the defendant in an ac-tion for separate maintenance begun yesterday by his wife, Sarah L. Nash. She alleges in her complaint that she enlist. Recruits from inland towns are preferred by the government to those from seaport towns. More substantial and able seamen are said to be secured in that way, and consequently four details of recruiting officers were sent through the country nine months ago by the government. The one which is now stationed in Salt Lake is regarded as the champion of the four, having within that time secured 1,400 recruits.
